About the Album

Sarabande for Solo Piano is the debut album by American pianist and composer Heather Augustyn. Released in 2020, the album features 10 original compositions for solo piano. Augustyn's music is a unique blend of classical, new age, and ambient styles, creating a hauntingly beautiful and deeply evocative soundscape.

The album opens with the title track, "Sarabande," a slow and stately piece that sets the tone for the rest of the album. Augustyn's delicate touch and nuanced phrasing create a sense of both longing and tranquility. The following track, "Nocturne," is a more introspective piece, with Augustyn's sparse and atmospheric playing evoking a sense of mystery and wonder.

The album continues with a series of shorter pieces, each with its own unique character. "Reverie" is a dreamy and ethereal piece, while "Impromptu" is a more playful and energetic composition. "Elegy" is a beautiful and moving tribute to a lost loved one, while "Toccata" is a fiery and passionate piece that showcases Augustyn's technical prowess.

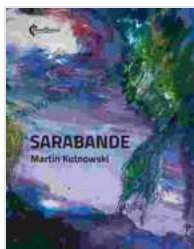

The album closes with the aptly titled "Lullaby," a gentle and soothing piece that provides a perfect ending to this haunting and beautiful masterpiece.

About the Artist

Heather Augustyn is an American pianist and composer known for her unique and evocative compositions. She began playing piano at the age of 5, and she quickly developed a passion for classical music.
