About the Author

How Does the Constitutional Amendment Process Work?

STEP 1 : AMENDMENT IS PROPOSED

This can happen one of two ways.

OPTION 1

Proposed by Congress with a two-thirds majority vote in both the House of Representatives and the Senate.

OPTION 2

Proposed by "a convention for proposing amendments" (commonly referred to as a "Convention of States"), which is called by Congress on the application of two-thirds of the state legislatures (at least 34 states).

STEP 2 : RATIFICATION

There are two ways that an amendment can be ratified.

OPTION 1

Legislatures in three-fourths of the states (at least 38 states) approve the amendment.

OPTION 2

Ratifying conventions in three-fourths of the states (at least 38 states) approve the amendment.
